

Out & About in Margate

Things to do in Margate...

The Turner Contemporary, the Harbour Margate

This new contemporary arts gallery has wonderful exhibitions and activities including late night arts shows, weekend craft activities, workshops, guided tours each Saturday morning at 11:30, and a cafe. This month will see the introduction of two new exhibitions: 'Mondrian and Colour' and 'Spencer Finch' - www.turnercontemporary.org

Theatre Royal Margate

Why not go and watch a music, dance or theatre show just around the corner from our school? Visit the theatre website to find out what's on: www.theatreroyalmargate.com

Various Art Galleries around Margate

Every month, most galleries put on some great free exhibitions by local up and coming artists. You will find the galleries in the bottom of the High Street, in the old town and on the harbour.

Winter Gardens Margate

Visit the website and find out what's on this month. There's a wide choice of fantastic shows, including concerts, theatre productions, and performing arts: www.margatewintergardens.co.uk

The Westcoast, King Street, Margate

Bar and club playing live bands every Friday, including ska, reggae, punk and rock. www.westcoastlive.co.uk

The Lifeboat Pub, Old Town Margate

If you want a drink of Kent beer and cider in a traditional Kent pub, then try the Lifeboat: www.thelifeboat-margate.com Facebook "ale cider". Julian, the landlord, welcomes all students and loves to discuss Kent local history and events. Tuesday and Thursday evenings are music evenings and Wednesday evenings are Quiz evenings.

The Lighthouse Bar, Harbour Arm Margate

This is a great place for a glass of wine on a sunset evening at the end of the pier or a mug of hot chocolate on a cold evening! Light meals served as well as drinks.

Wig & Pen Pub, Old Town Margate

This is our recommended pub for all live football & sports. The pub offers a friendly atmosphere as well as a pool table and a dart board. The Wig & Pen is a real British pub.

Hartsdown Leisure Centre, Margate

If you fancy a refreshing swim or session in the gym why not try Margate's leisure centre within walking distance or short bus ride from the school. No membership required.

Shell Grotto, Margate

An amazing mystery re-discovered in 1835 with 70 feet of winding underground passages covered with 4.6 million seashells! No-one knows how this grotto came to be built or what it is - come and see what you think!

Margate Museum, Old Town Margate

A museum housed in the second oldest building in Margate Old Town - this used to be the Town Hall, the Police Station and Magistrates Court! Experience Victorian police cells, Margate in the War and more.

Bugsy's Bowling, Margate

Why not try ten-pin bowling at Bugsy's in Cliftonville? You can enjoy three games for just £9. Bugsy's also serve drinks and food while you bowl.

Westwood Cross Shopping Centre

Westwood Cross is a modern shopping centre, with plenty of shops, restaurants, and multi-plex cinema. A perfect place for students to start Christmas shopping. Get there by the thanet loop in just 10 minutes for a return cost of £3.00.

Rent a bike and explore

Why not rent a bike and explore the Viking coastal trail. Pick up a bike from Ken's Bikes in Margate and take on the trail. Ask @ Reception for any assistance.
